

Cedar Crest Independent Baptist Church

Music/Choir Director

Responsibilities

The Music/Choir Director is responsible for providing spiritual leadership, oversight, and direction for the church's sacred music ministry. This man will work closely with the pastor to ensure that all music glorifies God, supports sound doctrine, and enhances congregational worship in a distinctly Independent Baptist context. All music must be sacred, reverent, and God-honoring.

Ministry Responsibilities

Ministry opportunities may include, but are not limited to:

- Leading congregational singing for all regular services and special meetings
- Planning and coordinating all church music in cooperation with the pastor
- Selecting hymns and special music consistent with Biblical doctrine and church standards
- Directing and developing choirs, ensembles, and special music groups as applicable
- Training and scheduling musicians and singers
- Providing musical leadership for revival meetings, missions conferences, and special services
- Encouraging congregational participation in worship through strong, clear song leading
- Assisting in outreach ministries, including soul winning and special evangelistic events
- Supporting children's and youth music ministries as needed
- Assisting with visitation (shut-ins, widows, and church members)
- Participating faithfully in all church services and ministry activities
